The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection it is so ordered. The clerk will report the resolution by title.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the resolution.

Mr. McCONNELL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the resolution and preamble be agreed to en bloc, the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table, and that any statements relating to the resolution be printed in the RECORD as if read, without further intervening action or debate.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The resolution (S. Res. 73) was agreed to.

The preamble was agreed to.

The resolution, with its preamble, is as follows:

ORDERS FOR MONDAY, MARCH 14, 2005

Mr. McCONNELL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, the Senate adjourn until 10 a.m. on Monday, March 14. I further ask that following the prayer and pledge, the morning hour be deemed expired, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the time for the two leaders be reserved, and the Senate begin consideration of the budget resolution, as under the order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. McCONNELL. Mr. President, the Senate will reconvene on Monday at 10 a.m. and immediately begin consideration of the budget resolution. As I mentioned earlier this morning, and I mention again now, it is going to be a long and challenging week. Senators should expect to be here in the evenings. There will, of course, be multiple votes during the course of the week. We typically do what is referred to around here with a wry smile as a vote-a-rama toward the end of the budget week.

I caution all Senators that next Friday will be an unusual Friday, a Friday in which we will, in all likelihood, be here and working throughout the day and up into the evening. If previous years' Fridays of budget week are any indication, that is what we can expect next Friday. I want everybody to be on notice that notions of pulling out early on the Friday before the recess probably will not hold, unless we have incredible cooperation early in the week to move much more quickly. We are looking at an unusual and long Friday with lots of votes next Friday. We are going to try to work our way through the budget resolution as rapidly as possible and get everybody out of here as soon as possible, but anticipate that next Friday will be difficult.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 10 A.M., MONDAY, MARCH 14, 2005

Mr. McCONNELL. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 12:06 p.m., adjourned until Monday, March 14, 2005, at 10 a.m.
